

Client Service Field Manager – must possess in field pool experience and have working knowledge of pool chemistry and pool equipment. Spends most of their day in the field, in a hands-on role, supporting and managing a staff of technicians and mechanics. Must have good follow up and follow through, along with attention to detail and excellent verbal and written communication skills. Quick response for resolution of issues is expected so clients are provided with a high touch experience. Full time, year-round, benefits. Apply online at www.tortorella.com/employment